

Executive Protection Officer

Wings CRS is seeking resumes for an experienced, Executive Protection Officer to join in this uniquely aggressive, life-saving global start up.

While we love candidates with experience, we really love ATTITUDE more! Attitude empowered with empathy, securely within the heart of a servant-leader who is strongly intuitive, confident self-starter, out of the box thinker, supportive team player and capable problem solver, not a problem creator. Our ideal candidate possesses exceptional communications skills, loves people no matter what race, religion, or ethnicity, and is unafraid to tackle any task, or to travel to the four corners of the earth to do a purposed-work that is greater than themselves, and above all, is deeply passionate and committed to saving lives.

In this role, you will be tasked with planning, coordinating and conducting close protection for our executives or any personnel or guests and assets as assigned to you, providing efficient and high quality support while traveling or conducting their duties. Officers must be able to work at times under pressure and handle a wide variety of activities and are expected to competently respond to any situation that may arise.

Job Duties and Responsibilities

- Provide close protection and other security-related functions for the client during domestic and/or international assignments;
- Lead counter surveillance operations.
 - Perform protective advance planning and threat vulnerability assessments.
 - Transport the client and/or family members to events and appointments, using evasive and/or defensive driving tactics, as needed.
 - Effectively manage the client and/or their family/representative requests against the need to ensure all safety and security precautions.
 - Respond to emergencies and perform medical operations, as needed.

- Deescalate tense situations or individuals that arise at the client residence and/or events
- Communicate vulnerabilities or safety concerns in a timely manner.
- Complete suspicious activity reports, incident reports, shift logs, pattern of life reports, medical treatment reports, and other administrative requirements.
- Ensure vehicle is always fueled and in clean and safe operating conditions .
- Assist with protection schedules and team assignments.
- Operate and maintain protective, operations, and communications equipment;
- Promptly identify and escalate deficiencies/failures.
- Perform any and all additional qualified duties as instructed

Job Requirements and Qualifications
