

Executive Administrative Assistant to the COO

Wings CRS is seeking resumes for several energetic, competent Executive Administrative Assistants with experience supporting a COO, to join this unique, life-saving global start-up.

Our ideal candidate possesses exceptional communication skills, loves people no matter what race, religion, or ethnicity, and is unafraid to tackle any task, or to travel to the four corners of the earth to do a purposed work that is greater than themselves, and above all, is deeply passionate and committed to saving lives.

You will work on a one-to-one basis on a variety of tasks related to the COO's working life and communications, providing personalized secretarial and administrative support in a well-organized and timely manner.
